

Music at St Martin's

July/August Concerts

SATURDAY 27 JULY ~ 2.30pm

Music for violin and piano

Gwilym Simcock piano

Thomas Gould violin

THREE CHOIRS
FESTIVAL 2024
WORCESTER 27 JUL-3 AUG

Using two of Corelli's sonatas for violin and keyboard as their starting point, the duo will improvise personal responses to pieces by Corelli, Avo Pärt and Purcell, showing the many similarities between music of the baroque period and the world of jazz, culminating in a performance of Corelli's famous 'La Folia' variations like no other.

Tickets - £32, £26, £12, Under 25s Free

MONDAY 29 JULY ~ 11.30am

Heath Quartet and GBSR Duo

Vibrant and adventurous, the Heath Quartet strings and GBSR Duo percussion bring a lively energy to thrilling music by Tippett, Duddell (premier performance) Martland, and Luke Lewis (festival commission).

Tickets - £32, £26, £12, Under 25s Free

TUESDAY 30 JULY ~ 4.00pm

Songs from my Homeland

Francesca Chiejina soprano and Jocelyn Freeman piano present a timeless musical journey depicting places and scenarios that echo a sense of belonging.

Tickets - £32, £26, £12

FRIDAY 2 AUGUST ~ 9.30am

Organ Recital

Ashley Chow is the final recitalist of the festival from the Royal College of Organists and is organ scholar at St James's, Piccadilly. His programme includes Willan's organ masterpiece Introduction, Passacaglia and Fugue, arrangements of two contrasting works by Elgar, and a rich feast of French music. £15, under 25s free.

Tickets - £15, under 25s Free

St Martin's pop-up café will be open 30 minutes before and after each concert, and during the intervals. Full programme & tickets here: 3choirs.org/whats-on

SATURDAY 17 August ~ 7.30pm

Chivenor Military Ladies Choir

More details here: www.worcesterfestival.co.uk/

Tickets - £15 from Eventbrite